WHAT TO KNOW BEFORE YOUR DAY

1. Timeline & Preparation

- Please Be On Time: Timeliness is key for us to stay on track and ensure everything flows smoothly on your big day. Be sure to arrive on time, and remind your bridal party to be ready when their time comes.
- Prep Instructions: For your hair, please come with clean, dry hair (unless we've discussed otherwise). Avoid using heavy oils or products that may interfere with styling. For makeup, I recommend having a clean, moisturized face to create a perfect canvas.
- Hair Length & Texture: If you're wearing extensions or have specific texture preferences, let me know ahead of time so we can plan accordingly.

2. Trials

- Why a Trial is Important: I strongly recommend a trial before the wedding day to make sure we're aligned on your look. We'll test out different styles and make any tweaks needed to ensure you feel absolutely stunning.
- Timing for Trials: Ideally, we'll schedule your trial 2-4 months before the big day. This gives us plenty of time to perfect the look and make any adjustments as needed.

3. Payment

- Retainer & Payment: A retainer is required to secure your date, with the remaining balance due on the wedding day or first event. This is included in your contract along with payment methods.

4. Special Requests & Customization

- Your Desired Look: Share your inspiration photos with me so I can better understand the vibe you're going for. Whether you want something natural or more glamorous, I'll ensure your look is personalized to make you feel like the best version of yourself.
- Hair Accessories: If you plan on wearing a veil, headpiece, or any other hair accessories, please bring them to the trial so I can incorporate them into your look.
- Skin Allergies or Sensitivities: Let me know if you have any skin sensitivities, allergies, or concerns about certain makeup products, so I can choose the best products for you.

5. Wedding Day Considerations

- Timing on the Big Day: Bridal hair and makeup typically takes 2.5-3 hours. It's important to allow enough time for me to work my magic on you and your bridal party.
- Weather & Location Impact: If your wedding is outdoors or in a humid location, we'll discuss how to best keep your look intact. I'll recommend products and techniques to ensure your hair and makeup last all day, no matter the weather.

6. Aftercare & Maintenance

- Maintaining Your Look: I'll share tips with you on how to keep your makeup fresh and your hair looking beautiful throughout the day. I can also recommend products to help keep everything in place.
- Removing Makeup: After the big day, make sure you gently remove your makeup to avoid irritation. I can suggest the best products for your skin type if needed.

I want this entire experience to be as smooth and enjoyable as possible for you. If you have any questions or special requests, don't hesitate to reach out! I'm here to make sure you look and feel incredible on your wedding day.

FINAL WORDS

Your wedding day will move quickly — but the images will stay with you for years to come.

When you look back, I want you to remember more than how your makeup looked. I want you to remember how you felt— calm, confident, and completely yourself.

This investment isn't just about hair and makeup; it's about creating a look that photographs beautifully, wears comfortably, and still feels like you — long after the day is over.

Because when the flowers fade and the night quiets down, those photos will remain — and I want you to love the way you looked in every single one of them.

That's what timeless artistry is: beauty that lasts beyond the day, and a feeling that stays with you forever.
